GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

According to World Maritime News the vessel was chartered as STENA AKARITA by Neste (Fortum) for four years with a two year option 1998. The contract was worth at least U.S. $ 8 million. The ship was deployed as shuttle tanker in the Ross Field of the North Sea. (World Maritime News - 6 March 1998)

UNIS owns 65.5% of NORDIC AKARITA. The vessel is a sister vessel to Nordic Savonita and Nordic Torinita and was converted by Tsuneishi in 1991. NORDIC AKARITA was converted to a shuttle tanker in 1996. The vessel was built to the same specifications as the Nordic Savonita but in addition, it has a centerline bulkhead. Since November 1998, the vessel has been under contract to the Finnish state-owned oil company Fortum (formerly Neste). The contract with Fortum runs until 2003 at a minimum.
