GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

2010: The US Navy is said to have helped the 17,000-dwt AVENUE BEAUTY (built 2008) escape capture in Gulf of Aden.

Between six and seven pirates in one skiff opened fire on the Malta-flagged handysize in the Internationally Recognised Transit Corridor at around 01:00 local time, a spokesperson at the ship's owner, Atlas Gemi Isletmeciligi, told TradeWinds. It is believed that an unidentified US warship may have assisted the bulker in preventing any hijacking. The ship was en route from the Suez Canal to Singapore with a cargo of steel products and has continued its journey.
