The UTSIRA (Norwegian-registry 444-gt passenger and general cargo vessel) collided "head-on" with the DURA BULK (Danish-registry 2,950-gt, 3,007-dwt bulk carrier built in 1973, owned by Danish International and operated by T Wang) on 22 Jan 1997 south of Karmsundet, Norway. The Dura Bulk ran aground and was later towed off while the Utsira continued its voyage.
