(Golden Destiny weekly market report - 21st December 2012)

2013: Singapore-headquartered Glory Wealth is seeking recognition in a New York federal court of a $5.43m London arbitration award against Flame. The filing comes as Flame and Glory Wealth are fighting separate lawsuits against Vista in a federal court in Norfolk, Virginia, where the two companies have separate attachment orders against the 169,381-dwt CAPE VIEWER (built 1992). Both plaintiffs allege that Vista, which owns the combination carrier (OBO), was built out of the ashes of Ukraine's Industrial Carriers Inc (ICI). ICI collapsed into bankruptcy in 2008 as the first high-profile casualty of the bulker market crash, and Flame and Glory Wealth both allege to be owed millions.

A hearing before Norfolk federal District Judge Robert Doumar to consider the release of the CAPE VIEWER is scheduled for 10 January. (www.tradewindsnews.com/drycargo/329992/glory-wealth-chases-flame - 30 December 2013)
