GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

Grounded 29/8/2000 at Dragonares, Kithira Island, and her engine room was reported to be flooded. The salvage tug MATSAS STAR was on the scene but unable to prevent fuel oil seeping out and polluting local beaches. She continued to take water and her stern was rested on the bottom. She was on passage from Saint John for Gemlik with pearlite.

Report by Marine News - Nov 2000

The Polish master of the cargo ship Nordland was due to appear in a Piraeus courtroom today to face charges of causing a shipwreck and pollution stemming from the accident two weeks ago when his vessel ran aground on the Greek island of Kythira.
