GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

The Casco Bay cities of Portland and South Portland will welcome the arrival of the OVERSEAS PORTLAND, a newly built oil tanker owned by the Ocean Shipholding Group, one of the largest independent bulk shipping companies in the world. According to the owners, the tanker has been appropriately named after the Port of Portland due to their belief that "Portland is the finest port, in the finest state, in the United States of America."

The 820 foot ship is due to arrive at the outer anchorage of Portland Harbor on Friday evening. The tanker will then be shifted to Portland Pipe Line on Saturday morning where she will complete her first ever discharge of petroleum to that terminal.
