GENERAL VESSEL INFORMATION:

1996: The 30,000-dwt bulker EDO (built 1984) has been reported sold to Serbian interests. The vessel is said to have fetched USD 8.8m. It is listed as being controlled by Roswell Navigation in Greece, which reportedly bought it for USD 10m in 1994. 2001: The 30,600-dwt PELINOVO (built 1984) arrived in Houston in mid-October. A Houston lawyer confirms that the PELINOVO was arrested by the bank that holds its mortgage.

On order of the Credit Lyonnais Bank, yet another Jugooceanija ship – the PELINOVO – was held in Houston. The Kotor company believes it is lost for good. Namely, it was held three times in October alone, twice by order of the French bank and once by the International Teamsters Federation (ITF). The third arrest was announced when Jugooceanija was struggling to recover the ship from the ITF, and it happened only three days after the PELINOVO was freed. (www.aimpress.ch)

Still, one vessel of the Kotor's "Jugooceanija" remained in half a domestic hands: bulk carrier "Pelinovo" of capacity of 30.650 tones, built in 1984, today is a part of the fleet of the respectable company "Dabinovic" from Monaco, which was founded by the famous Boka ship owner, late Bozo Dabinovic. Even though on its mast it has a foreign flag of a small country Saint Vincent and Grenadina, this boat even today has a very domestic name – "Perast".

2012: Dabinovic (Monaco) is renewing its fleet and has replaced an early-1980s-built bulker with a 2000-built unit. The Monte Carlo-based company, controlled by the Dabinovic family with roots in Croatia, sold the 30,000-dwt PERAST (built 1984) to Gemma Denizcilik of Turkey. The UK-built vessel is due for docking in August and is said to have fetched $3.2m. It will be renamed ERA and will join two other 1980s-built handysizes in the fleet of the Ankara-based owner.

Dabinovic bought the vessel as PELINOVO for $8.8m in 1996.
