Cash buyers in the ship recycling sector are well aware of the fortunes to be made by extending the trading lives of vintage tankers in today's extreme markets brought about by Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

Another cash buyer, Wirana Shipping, has also got into shipowning in recent weeks. The company has paid $55m to take on the 15-year-old, 297,400 dwt Nave Photon VLCC from Navios Maritime Partners as well as shelling out $52m for the 18-year-old, 281,396 dwt Asia Dawn VLCC from Hong Kong's Nan Fung Shipping with plans to add more tankers in the coming months. The Asia Dawn has since been renamed Ocean Kapal.

"Tougher U.S. sanctions on tankers involved in Iranian oil flows have tightened shipping capacity," Xu Muyu, a senior analyst at Kpler, wrote in a report.

Washington sanctioned 45 of the 147 tankers involved in Iranian crude oil shipments this year, Xu said.

Several of the sanctioned Very Large Crude Carriers (VLCCs), including FT Island, Vanity and Elva, are floating off Malaysia, shipping data on LSEG showed.
