FSL Trust's survival hangs in the balance as third vessel is sold

2003-built, 1,221 teu FSL Busan was sold for USD6.2 million cash.

The survival of Singapore's First Ship Lease Trust hangs in the balance, as it proceeds to liquidate assets for debt repayment.

The trust announced on Thursday 18 January it has sold a 2003, German-built, 1,221 teu container ship for a cash consideration of USD6.2 million.

FSL Santos and FSL Busan, both of a similar age and size, were deployed in the HANSE pool.

First Ship Lease Trust was one of Singapore's first shipping companies to list on the Singapore Exchange in 2007, but has been on the decline, having suffered a series of high-profile departures in recent years.
